

Erica T. Jones has had a love for theatre and music for as long as she can remember. She has taken part in many school productions including The Vagina Monologues, Unchained Memories, as well as For Colored Girls... Ms. Jones would like to give thanks to her Heavenly Father for the blessed gifts that He has bestowed upon her as well as the continuous love and support from her family and friends. Erica is also extremely grateful to entire IKAM Productions team and Jasmine Guy for allowing her to take part in her first major production.
